

Consent statement

By submitting your details to the Illuminating RARE Talent programme you consent to us storing your personal details such as name, contact details and CV and sharing this information with the intern placement providers.

All personal information is kept securely and only for as long as you are a part of the programme. For the full RARE Youth Revolution Data Protection Policy click here.

For placement provider policies please contact the placement provider.